Our Mission

To develop gardens, protect woodlands and provide educational programs that stimulate the imagination and deepen our understanding and appreciation of nature.

What We Do

- Preserve 36 acres in north Columbus
- Connect visitors with nature
- Inspire horticultural ideas
- Educate school children and adults about gardening
- Celebrate life in a beautiful, serene environment

GARDENS: Visit our rose, cottage, herb, vegetable and camellia gardens, our event lawn, and native wetland flora and fauna year-round.

JOANN HOLT WALKING TRAIL: Stroll through this mile-long looping trail through hardwood and pine trees.

BIRDING: See robins, goldfinches, blue jays, woodpeckers, cardinals and red-tailed hawks, among others, at our feeders and in the trees.

WORKSHOPS & EVENTS: Join us to learn from experienced speakers on a variety of topics. We offer educational programming for both children and adults as well as cultural events.

PLANT SALES: Shop our biannual plant sales for the best selection of blooms, crafts and more.

HISTORY: Enjoy historic structures like the Farmhouse, Gin House and Carriage House Barn.
